HELLO

*We are Lohia Worldspace, a consumer centric real estate brand of Lohia Developers (India) Private Limited that giving a new perspective to realty.
Developing landscapes that mirror
nature to constructing global structures
where life blossoms and work prosper.
We shape new reality & aspirational
living spaces under the brand Lohia Worldspace.*

Lohia Worldspace is dedicated to creating futuristic and new-reality living spaces, with green spaces and promote community living. Based on the principle of harmonious living, we combine luxury and leisure to give a serene experience away from the routine of daily life and its challenges.

We believe in a thoughtful architecture through which our environment is appreciated, protected & enhanced & allows enough space for greenery to flourish that can go a long way in evading monotony, uplifting the mood and creating a sense of inclusion.

Lohia Worldspace practices the virtue of valuing and nurturing relationships. We understand that people today are not merely looking at transactions, they are attracted to the purpose of the greater things done for society. Lohia Worldspace, thus, creates projects defined by substance, genuine interaction, and deep meaning in co-housing, commercial & shared spaces.

The Company is expanding the Group's business to new horizons and extending the Lohia Worldspace brand to new geographies in the areas of sustainable township developments and innovative setups with international standards.

Purpose

To leave our cities and regions in a better condition than we found them.

Our APPROACH.

We are aware and balanced in our approach, we are mindful of technology, the environment, the quality of built and open spaces that we create. We take a fresh approach on everything we design. Our approach seamlessly integrates the wisdom of tradition and the cleverness of the new.

We exist to influence and contribute to the creation of the safe, sustainable, and inspiring future that we all deserve. We work together to deliver projects and advice for a better built environment that are more environmentally sustainable, socially responsible, and commercially intuitive.

We aim to achieve a balance among durability, quality, and affordability, prioritizing environmentally sensitive practices such as using responsibly sourced materials with minimal embodied energy and carbon emission, thereby minimizing our ecological footprint while delivering our product.

We believe that Businesses do not merely need businessmen, rather reformative entrepreneurs who have power to modulate negative environmental changes, capabilities to create new opportunities and encourage an ethical culture with a strong code of conduct.

We intend to create a safer, more productive workplace while being transparent in protecting each other from unseen situations by un hiding every aspect of buying into the brand.
